OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF AKRON.

TO TELEPHONE THE DEMOCRAT CALL
No. 180.

MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1900.

In his speech seconding the nomination of Mr. McKinley, Gov. Roosevelt had a great deal of criticism for the New York Ice trust, but he forgot to say a word about the hundreds of other trusts throughout the country that are taking tribute from the people. And he neglected to say also that thirteen of the fifteen directors of the much abused ice trust are Republicans.

Congressman Grosvenor isn't very well satisfied with the National Republican platform. He claims that the resolutions committee turned down the clear and vigorous declarations that had been presented by the Administration's platform builders and substituted therefor a lot of "drivel." Having been turned down in his choice of a Vice Presidential candidate and its platform, it is difficult to see what victory the Administration leaders won in the convention.

FROM GIDDINGS TO DICK.

Several months ago when Representative Sims of Tennessee, made a bitter attack upon the extension of the pension system, particularly upon the applications for pensions filed by members of the Eighth Ohio regiment, Gen. Dick got such a severe attack of stage fright that he was unable to reply in behalf of his regiment, and the defense was made by his eloquent Democratic colleague, Congressman Norton, of Tiffin. In one of the numbers of the Congressional Record published since Congress adjourned will be found a twenty-five page speech by Congressman Dick which was never delivered in Congress. Gen. Dick is the first Representative of the Nineteenth district who ever had in Congress who shrank from uttering his sentiments upon the floor of Congress for fear of provoking a controversy in which he might appear to disadvantage before the country. In these days the backdoor route of effecting entrance to the Congressional Record is accounted no disgrace. It is a long descent from Giddings to Dick.

HONOR FOR AN AKRON MAN.

Judge Chas. R. Grant has been named as one of the delegates at large to the National convention of the Lincoln Republican party, to be held at Kansas City, July 4.

This honor has been conferred upon Judge Grant because his writings in support of the principles of Lincoln Republicanism have attracted national attention and because he is everywhere recognized as being one of the foremost leaders of thought among the men connected with the independent political movement to again give force to the principles of Lincoln in DEAF!

This Time It's the Hearing.

For several months I have been unable to hear out of my right ear, with very annoying and buzzing noises in it. Dr. Tucker has cured me so effectually of both deafness and roaring in the ear that I am pleased to give my testimonial to the same.

the Administration of the government. At a time when a special aptitude for political machine organization and manipulation are heralded as the only true test of political merit and success, had the distribution of spoils is accounted to be the sole end of political endeavor, it is no small distinction that Akron should be the home of men such as Judge Grant and Governor Sidney Edgerton, who are winning honorable applause for the zeal and the courage and the splendid ability with which they are combatting the worst element in latter day politics.

THEN AND NOW.

(New York Journal.)

Republicans of 1856 believed that the United States had no powers except such as the constitution gave it.

The membership of the Republican party then was as distinct as its platform from that of today. Instead of Platt and Depeew, New York had in the Senate, Hamilton Fish and William H. Seward. Instead of Hanna, Ohio had Ben Wade. Instead of Lodge, Massachusetts had Charles Sumner.

The original Republican party had no Gallinger, Sowell, Penrose or Foraker in the Senate, but it had Lyman Trumbull, William Pitt Fessenden, Henry Wilson and John P. Hale. It had no Cannon, Dolliver or Payne in the House, but it had Elihu B. Washburne, Anson Burlingame, Nathaniel P. Banks, Edwin B. Morgan, John Sherman and Joshua R. Giddings.

And outside of Congress were men like Abraham Lincoln, and Hannibal Hamlin, and David Wilmot, and Owen Lovejoy. The Republican party then was an organized conscience, as was fitting in a body that professed to follow Jefferson, and it was as rich in brains as in morals.

EXPLOSION.

Gas Accumulated in Chimney—Neighbors Were Frightened.

People living in the vicinity of Carroll and Sumner streets were frightened Sunday morning by the report of an explosion at the home of Benjamin F. Glutner, 217 Sumner st. Mrs. Glutner was using her gas stove when the explosion occurred. Gas had accumulated in the chimney. In some manner it became ignited. The top of the chimney was blown into the yard. No one was injured.

SLATED

To Succeed Thomas.

Teachers Committee Have Agreed on Man.

Superintendency Offered to Educator,

Who Has National Reputation in His Work.

Prof. Treudley of Youngstown, Is Considering the Matter.

From an unquestionable source comes the information that so far as the Board of Education is concerned, the question of securing a superintendent for the Akron schools is settled.

It is understood that the Board has agreed upon a successor to Prof. R. S. Thomas, and that it now remains for the person in question to signify his acceptance of the position.

The man slated for the place is Superintendent Treudley, of Youngstown, and unless he refuses to accept the situation, he will be at the head of Akron's schools the coming year.

A few days ago, the Teachers' committee visited Youngstown and went over the matter with Prof. Treudley. It is believed that the Youngstown man has the matter under consideration, and until his final answer has been received the search for a superintendent will be suspended.

Prof. Treudley is well known to the teachers in this city and his election to the superintendency would meet with universal approval. As an educator, his reputation extends far beyond the limits of his own State, for in many national conventions of teachers he has been conspicuous for his eloquence and learning.

Goshen, Ill.

Genesee Pure Food Co., LeRoy, N. Y.: Dear Sirs:—Some days since a package of your Grain-O preparation was left at my office. I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the Grain-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank. Respectfully yours, A. C. Jackson, M. D.

TWO EVILS

That Will be Combated by Societies.

Confederation Meeting Was Not Attended by Large Number.

The meeting set for Sunday at 2:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church for the purpose of organizing a confederation of the Christian Endeavor, Epworth League and young people's societies was attended by just ten people. Owing to the small attendance those present did not deem it advisable to go ahead in organizing. Mr. J. H. Barnhardt was elected temporary secretary.

Another meeting has been called for Monday evening, July 2, in the First M. E. church.

The object of the confederation is to combat with the liquor traffic and cigarette nuisance, among school children especially.

IT WASN'T THERE

When Chas. Fink Went After Money He'd Hidden.

Chas. C. Fink, an employee of the Werner company, not long ago hid in a garret at the plant an envelope in which was $15 in gold. Mr. Fink went after the coin recently, but it was not there. It is believed that rats carried the envelope away to build a nest of it, and that the money was thus lost.

CONVENTION

Of Epworth League.

Delegates In Session at Cuyahoga Falls.

Masons, In Full Dress, Attended Church.

Able Sermon Preached by Rev. Robert Kell.

First Game on New Ball Grounds—Akron Team Won.

(Special Correspondence.)

Cuyahoga Falls, June 25. The annual convention of the Akron District Epworth league will open here this evening in the M. E. church, continuing until Tuesday evening.

The officers of the district league are President, Guy W. Finch; first vice president, M. Elsie Marsh; second vice president, Ella Moffatt; third vice president, Rena Haley; fourth vice president, Edith Wolf; recording secretary, Mary Tupper; treasurer, J. R. Jones; superintendent Junior League, Mrs. W. E. Wykoff.

The program for the convention follows:

Monday evening—Praise services, W. H. Tallmadge, Warren; devotions by Miss Bertha Philpott, Ravenna; address of welcome, Miss Dorna Sapp, Cuyahoga Falls; response, Forest Hill, Akron; address, Milton B. Pratt, Akron; informal reception.

Tuesday morning—Sunrise prayer meeting, J. W. King, Akron; devotions; Miss Jessie Powers, Rootstown; Helps in Devotional Meetings, Mrs. William Shepherd, Palmyra; discussion, opened by A. E. Wouders, Warren; Hindrances in Devotional Meetings, E. J. Moore, Ravenna; discussion, opened by Mrs. Arb. Wise, Brimfield; address of president, followed by reports; election of officers; dinner hour.

Tuesday afternoon—Devotions, Miss Ethel Thompson, Charlestown; Junior League Work, Miss Stella McNutt, East Liverpool; How to Promote Sociality in League, Arthur Schubert, Akron; Religion Between Sundays, in League's Life, Homer Robins, Warren; How to Promote Revivals in League, L. C. Halleck, Mineral Ridge; How to Enthuse Leaguers, J. M. Parboeni, Yale; Influence of an Epworthian, Harry E. Barnes, Tallmadge; Our Opportunity, D. J. Boone, Windham.

Tuesday evening—Song service and prayer; installation of officers, J. W. Robins, Warren; address, Dr. A. B. Riker.

The Masons, attired in full dress uniform attended the Episcopal church, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock in a body. It was their annual gathering at the church. Rev. Robt. Kell delivered an able sermon, appropriate to the occasion. The special music by the choir was appreciated by the large congregation.

Saturday afternoon on the new grounds the local ball team was defeated by the Standard's of Akron. Score 14 to 11. The Akron aggregation has just been organized and it was their first game. They proved, however, to be no small potatoes. They now challenge Akron teams and the Barbertons.

Geo. Patterson, the well-known printer, has gone to Missouri to engage in business.

The Peoples Telephone line will be connected with Akron in a few days.

Children's Day.

Children's day was celebrated in a number of the churches Sunday. At the Universalist, Woodland M. E., First Baptist and Calvary Evangelical churches special programs had been prepared for the occasion. The services were much enjoyed.
